While traveling I often encounter these magical crossroads where road, river and railroad track meet...only to diverge again and each take a much different path but often to the same destination.

Occurred to me that life and people are much like the road, the river and the railroad track. Some enjoy the comfort and predictability of the rail cars, some like the adventure and unknown risk of the river raft, yet others are somewhere in the middle and prefer the control and variety of beauty in a nice road trip. Happy journey!

Print Title: Fox and Goldfinches in Prairie Dock
Paper Dimension: 10 x 15 inches
Image Dimension: 7 x 9 inches
Block: cherry
Pigment or Ink: Speedball
Paper: Sumi-E
Edition: 100

Comments: Inspired by a fox with zinnias in a carved wood Japanese corbel at the Taliesin library in Spring Green, WI and by a gray fox family living in my neighborhood this spring, I put my fox in a prairie where goldfinches find insects and later seeds on the prairie dock.

Print Title: "Bathroom Dinos"

Paper Dimension: 10 x 15 inches

Image Dimension: 8 x 12 inches

Block: Plywood

Pigment or Ink: Gamblin oil-based ink

Paper: Not sure. It was something I had extra of in my studio for several years

Edition: 18

Comments: I just finished artwork for a new picture book, "The Nautilus and the Ammonite" that included some imagery of dinosaurs, and that has got me interested in and drawing from toy and other representations of dinosaurs. I tried to have some fun making this print.
